

Cabinet Meeting March 7, 2017

Loyola Dining Room

- I. Roll Call: Absent: Paige, Abby, Kourtney, Katherine, Bridget, Grant, Austin, Anna, Chris, Joe
- II. Affirmations
 - a. Abby virtually set Caleb up for success! –suspiciously not Abby
 - b. Abby and Caleb was using the GSBA snapchat in Vegas –suspiciously not Abby
 - c. Rachel put things on social media very attentively and actively.
 - d. Grant updated club page on website!
 - e. Alice expedited poly-pro in Senate.
 - f. Governance Committee is hard working!
 - g. Joey for Live Tweets that are captured in the Bulletin
 - h. Joey calmed Rachel down just in time.
 - i. Chris for mending Katie's heart loss that was made void by Luis.
 - j. Senate is more progressive than the governing documents
- III. Hot Goss (not Nigel Williams....he's in VEGAS)
 - a. Kennel Club is investigating the possibility of subsidizing travel to Vegas
 - b. Alternative facts were used at the Senate meeting.
 - c. GSBA governing documents still refers to "freshmen"
 - d. Bomb Squad and AKPsi delegation got stranded in Salt Lake City
 - e. BRIDGET'S BIRTHDAY IS TODAAYYYYY
 - f. LUKE'S BIRTHDAY IS MARCH 21ST YEAHHHHHHHHHH
 - g. Also we should wish Kayla a happy belated birthday!
 - h. #HemmWatchParty coming soon
 - i. Grant's parents are as cool as Grant! #Vegas People are actually obsessed.
- IV. Reports:
 - a. President
 - i. Critical Race Studies minor meetings on Wednesday night
 - ii. Campus Climate Survey – use work hours if you need to!
 - iii. Weeknight programming with Erin Jones.. Stories coming soon!
 - iv. GSBA Reflection on Vision
 - v. Send Abby snapchat of us not in Cabinet
 - b. Vice President- absent
 - c. Speaker of Senate
 - i. Class Officer Constitution and By-Law Bills Passed! (3/6)
 - ii. CAMO + GAB Title By-law Change tabeled, GAB Title Constitutional Change Vetoed, to be presented next meeting (3/20)
 - iii. Three major resolution for rest of Spring Semester: Undocumented Students Resolution, Veteran/Returning Adult Childcare Resolution, Dead Week Resolution.
 - iv. Re-directed efforts for the Health & Safety Committee for Title IX Awareness
 - v. Meet Your Senator! Campaign to build relationships with constituents
 - d. Treasurer
 - i. Working on the budget for next year

1. Please critically think about your budgets and let me know how much you think the position should have next year
 - ii. Again: check purchase requests before submitting them. Auto-fill is a thing that may place you as the payee. That's bad. Submit them in advance.
- e. Chief of Staff - absent!
- i. All gear picked up for Adopt-a-Highway
 1. No Tom Foolery
 2. Likely going out in April
 - ii. Sign up sheet for Voting Week tabling coming soon!
 - iii. EOM Reports due today!
- f. Attorney General - no updates
- g. Director of Finance
- i. We're giving new clubs $100 for their first meeting with Director of Finance to start off positive relations. Director of Finance can also provide more info with how to get funding.
- h. Sustainability Chair
- i. Earth Week happens right after Easter. Event week calendar coming soon. Multiple partners across campus are contributing. This is the first year that GSBA is coordinating.
 1. Earth Week to include Green Fund Fair!
 2. Saturday of Earth Week will have a Scavenger Hunt for navigating Spokane. Look out for social media. #SpoScavengerHunt
 - ii. Spokane Transit Authorities: Central City Line open house – Thursday 4-6pm. Bus would run through campus.
 - iii. Campus Sustainability Steering Committee (CSSC) & Climate Action Plan (CAP) Working Group - goal is for GU to be climate neutrality by 2040 (?). CAP is meant to set goals and initiatives for achieving climate neutrality.
 - iv. Campus Sustainability Committee (CSC) Presentation
 - v. Food Closets is a project with Colleen and other departments (CCP and Sociology Department) for investigating and improving access to food. There could potentially be five food closet sites across campus. This should have less stigma than a food bank.
- i. Director of Diversity and Community
- i. Dr. Ralina Joseph
 1. Main event: March 22nd 7:00pm
 - a. Dr. Joseph studies contemporary representations of race, gender, and sexuality in the media. Dr. Joseph will speak about her book, Screening Strategic Ambiguity: Reading Black Female Resistance to the Postracial Lie (New York University Press, forthcoming), which looks at how African American women celebrities like Tyra Banks and Oprah Winfrey, cultural producers, and audiences challenge and resist post-racial discourse—the media-propagated notion that race and race-based discrimination are over.

2. Breakfast: Thursday, March 23rd 8:30-10am
 - a. Let me know if you want to go! (Amanda)
- ii. Coalition Work
 1. Laura Marck is going to continue the coordination for our Non-violent Communication Speaker Event for next Fall
 2. Getting a student certification and training day set up (e.g. Bystander, Safe Space)
 3. Collaborating with Emily Crew and Advocates 4 Social Justice
 - a. Petition to change Guest Policy to being defined in Roommate Agreements (no more heterosexist signs in the hall ways of our residence halls!). Tabling this week for signatures. Intended for delivery to JBG after Spring Break. Housing is already on board!
 4. Working with Dr. Reyes on a meeting to discuss the mission and our business affiliations (specifically USBank)
- j. Director of Clubs and Orgs
 - i. Received approval from Dean Lamsma for the four new student organizations that went through Cycle 3, so we now have four more new clubs.
 1. Rock Climbing
 2. Health an Fitness
 3. Society of Women Writers and Journalists
 4. Mobile App Development Group
 - ii. GET YOUR OTHER ORGANIZATIONS TO SUBMIT NOMINATIONS FOR CLUB AWARDS—the deadline has been extended through the 10th for submissions.
 1. Please nominate clubs, including those you may be involved with. It takes like 5 minutes!
 2. Banquet: April 11th at 6pm in Hemm Ballroom and there'll be free food so you definitely want an invite to this shin dig.
 - iii. GEL weekend club fair final planning — also ask your respective organizations to submit a reservation form. April 8th 8:30am - 12:30pm. This is the day after the Spring Carnival.
 - iv. I'm still worse than Scott. Or worse? The virtual record is spotty.
- k. Club Sports Chair - nothing vital.
 - i. Working with Jenna at CCP for alcohol mindfulness for competitive club sports
 - ii. Preliminary planning for Professor Basketball Game
- l. Director of Communication
 - i. Please complete our Communications Office survey!
<https://gonzaga.collegiatelink.net/form/start/123557>
 - ii. State of the Zag temporary hiatus due to the WCC tournament and Spring Break (iZag will not be publishing/airing podcasts at this time)
 - iii. Would having a central communications form on Zagtivities be useful for you? (it would be a place to put information about what you are trying to communicate and check boxes for if you need design work, social media promotions, website updates, etc). To be discussed.

- iv. Reminder that following, liking, and sharing our social media is much appreciated!
- m. ITS Manager - no updates
- n. Publicity Manager
 - i. Repetitive printing of posters that go unused will be charged to position's budget.
- o. Photographer
 - i. Looking forward to the end year video. Let me know if you have any ideas!
- p. GAB Director - no updates
- q. Weekend Events
 - i. Austin
 - 1. Crime Show (improv parody on crime shows) at Blue Door Theatre: March 24th, 65 seats available, 8pm, tickets are $2; cashnet will probably go up sometime later this week – stay tuned!
 - 2. Joe Black (hypnotist) will be having a hypnosis show at Wolff on March 31st 7:30pm to 8:30pm. 14 people can participate (get hypnotized) in the show
 - 3. Escape Rooms at Escape! - April 29th, 64 spots available (each room will hold 8 people – get 7 other friends to go with you!), more details to come
 - 4. Cat Tales Zoological Park – April 22nd, more details to come
 - ii. Laura
 - 1. Spokane Empires Game: March 24th
 - 2. Big Bing Concert: April 1st at Big Dipper (food might be provided! #AprilFools #OrNah)
- r. Lectures
 - i. Event this month. Super cool. It's in morning mail... G Yamazawa.
- s. CAMO
 - i. Luke is handling La Raza table (March 25th) and HPIC dinner (April 1st)
- t. Community
 - i. Storytime for Spokane kiddos-Saturday March 25th 12:00-2:00 p.m.
 - 1. Need volunteers to read for 20min slots if you're interested! Where the Wild Things Are, Chronicles of Narnia..
- u. Coffeehouse
 - i. Big Bing Theory at Coffeehouse this week!
- v. Elections Commissioners
 - i. Please read the email last week from Abby regarding office staff campaigning rules (e.g. No soliciting signatures in GSBA Office, Don't participate in social media campaigns). Any questions?!
 - ii. Keep an eye out for tabling sign ups from Abby—WE NEED HELP!!
 - iii. New constitution not going on ballot unless voted on 3/6
- w. Joey
 - i. Krista is away for Maternity Leave. Be considerate of others' workload.

- ii. Sexual Assault Awareness Week is April 3rd - 7th be on the lookout for more details soon.
- iii. Using the office after hours to study? Please do! Make sure you close all doors when you leave and put all furniture back where you found it.
- iv. Meetings will often take place in the office, so please be respectful.
- v. Reminder: Any event that you are either implementing or co-sponsoring in your GSBA role (GSBA's name will be used) needs to be put in as an event request in Zagactivities.

x. Alice

- i. Money Mentors – April is Financial Literacy Month - negotiate the moneys.
- ii. Please be mindful of Robert's Rules at Senate Meetings. If you are paid, do not speak/interject unless called upon.
- iii. TIMESHEETS! Submit before you leave for spring break

V. Discussion/Questions

VI. Dismissal - 9:30pm (Well done, Caleb)