 - i. Student Commitment to Cultural Enrichment
 - 1. T-Shirts – coming to you soon
 - 2. Signing a virtual commitment document (tabling)
 - 3. The idea behind this is to increase student knowledge of the why and to get students invested in the change. By exposing them to the language of cultural enrichment they will know that as an institution we will develop their cultural understanding and experience.
 - 4. Potential event on the 30th
- j. Director of Communication
 - i. The Hemm Den
 - 1. Snapchat filter for the grand opening of The Den will be live tomorrow in Hemmingson from 9AM to 11PM. Be sure to use it because it looks cool and The Den is awesome!
 - 2. Kayla will be taking photos of The Den to post on our FB
 - 3. No one in the Comm Office is able to be at the actual ribbon cutting ceremony so if someone can snapchat the event from the GSBA account that would be awesome!
 - ii. Working on central communications form on Zagtivities for the people next year to use. If you have specific input please let me know. I might also reach out to a few of you to ask what you think of the form.

 - ii. Club Registration is now up and running on Zagtivities! Club have until this Friday to register.

- iii. Earth Week and Pride Week are happening this week! Lots of cool events (and Relay for Life on Saturday).
- iv. This office, yo!
 - 1. It's gotta be cleaned up. Like, FOR REALS.
 - 2. It's not your living room; it's everyone's office. Treat it as such.
 - 3. Reminder before prep week and finals week: You are welcomed to use the office to study, but if a GUEST staff member comes in to close the office down and asks you to leave, you must comply and get out.
 - 4. Appointed Position interviews for next year taking place this Thursday from 7-9pm. If you aren't helping, then please leave the office clean and empty for next year's group to use!
- V. Discussion/Questions
 - a. Buses vs uber
 - i. GSBA people need to do more research into who and when people are using the buses and what will get people to use them
 - ii. New advertising next year about bus passes and downtown shuttles
- VI. Dismissal: 8:47 pm
