

Cabinet Meeting Notes

October 22, 2015, 8:05

- Taylor (President)—Present
 - Safe space training
 - Senator approached about having all of GSBA do safe space training (being more aware of all sexual orientation and providing a fair, equal treatment)
 - A few other trainings to discuss with everyone else, but something valuable
 - Campus shooting response
 - Overhearing students about how we can address shooting issues at campus
 - How can we act proactively
 - Training took place, curious to hear about who is covered
 - New program designed by security director
 - Sidewalk art
 - Water works sidewalk art: product that student approached GSBA president with that, when wet, appears as art
 - Will not be specifically GSBA, will be with Kennel Club and Friendship Friday to coordinate artwork
 - Art student will design
 - Disabilities Proclamation
 - Last two weeks of October, Hemmingson director will be putting up signs to remind to keep elevators for those who need them
 - Under the radar, but present
- Maggie (Vice President)—Virtually Present
 - Class officer updates
 - Will be making letters to Florence
 - No Shave November: where to put advertisements with GUEST (difficulties with advertisements in Hemmingson), will likely use reader boards)
 - If you want things in the class officer email, please send Vice President a slight blurb to include in the email
 - Often unsure about stuff on Zagactivities
 - October fest on October 30th 4:00-5:30: have information about healthy drinking: Cataldo
 - Want GSBA to have a table with flyers/pamphlets about things you can do with GSBA outside of drinking
 - Need information from GAB
 - Would be great to get some class officers and senators present
- Alex (Speaker of Senate)—Present
 - Last Senate meeting, fewer senators than needed
 - Libby from the Health Center presented, very interested
 - Health and Safety committee interested in pursuing sexual health issues

- Dean Lamsma at 1pm on Friday about Housing
 - 5 senators and GSBA president to discuss housing issues
- Senate Schedule:
 - Oct 26: Chuck Faulkenberry on Sodexo Meal plans, his plan for Sodexo meal plans (maybe hemmingson questions)
 - Nov. 2: Jim Jones on IT: discussing about making sure everything is up and running
- Be Heard!: very successful, about 87 comment cards (separated per committee)
 - Those that are truly GSBA want us to
 - Collaborate with Kennel Board
 - More outdoor activities and GAB
 - Collaborate with clubs
 - Sporadic surprises on campus
 - Administrative support for club sports
 - Will continue on a bi-weekly basis
 - Possible option: could be a Twitter “Be Heard” or “GSBA” Twitter
 - Maybe “GSBA” would be best
- Faculty Senate on Dec. 3rd: will discuss dead week and also NY Times
 - Inform Speaker if you have anything else
- SIL Update
 - Staff will be going to Whitman to observe their practices
 - Halloween dance on Halloween in Hemmingson
 - What about inappropriate costumes?
 - Free t-shirts to cover culturinappropriate costumes
 - Door hanger for all the Halloween events sponsored by GU
 - If interested in doing a site visit with any local universities, Dr. Vandenboom to set this up
 - Grab-a-date idea: spontaneous event (maybe published in Bulletin or twitter), allowing short, fun dates
 - Great way to practice having fun dates
- Bryan (Treasurer)
- Harrison (Director of Finance)
- Katie (GAB Lectures Chair Representative for GAB)
 - Staffing the Front Desk Friday (10/23)
 - If you have time to be at the front SIL desk
 - Event Sign Ups
 - Upcoming Events
 - Scarywood
 - Spin the Bottle: movie on alcohol safety and CCP led discussion
 - Coffeehouse: Josiah Belliardo
 - Courageous Conversations: Cultural Appropriation
 - Dia de Los Muertos:

- Amanda (Director of Clubs and Organizations)—Present
 - 6 new clubs were officially approved on Wednesday (139 total clubs on campus, 119 active)
 - Clay Club
 - Cornhole Club
 - Friendship Friday
 - GU Robo Sub
 - National Society of Collegiate Scholars
 - Native American Student Union
 - Fall Fest Club Fair will be November 4th: done by an SIL intern, fun laid back second club fair (get candy, games), will occur in Cataldo
 - Great opportunity for new clubs to market themselves
- Tatiana (Director of Diversity)—Present
 - Outreach for adopt a block: moving forward after meetings
 - Research proposal for Religious Accommodation Policy: working to put in place
 - Inter-group clubs: opportunities for DREAM students
 - DREAM, Diversity Week, Intercultural education week all underway
- Brandon (Director of Communications)—Present
 - State of the Zag: will email everyone tomorrow to get updates
 - Vice President will send information for SpoVenture
- Royal (Attorney General)—Present
 - Working to coordinate Judicial Board to coordinate meeting times
 - Senate governance committee introductory meeting, working with them to review the GSBA operational documents
 - Elections code to start and then the bylaws
- Nathan (Chief of Staff)

Discussion

- Gonzaga Scares Hunger
 - Need a large number of volunteers
 - Maybe need people to table for events
 - Sign-ups present in the GSBA office
 - Zagtivities
- Campus Shooting Response
 - Talk with President McCulloh to determine what is in place
 - Maybe consider an active shooter drill to ensure we have protocol
 - How do we get information to people? Classroom phones and Zagalert
 - Will bring up and maybe discuss
 - Could consider a GAB program around this event
- State of the Zag
 - Sent through email, but maybe consider a PDF
 - Do we want PDF or email?
 - Email: can include hyperlinks to Bulletin articles or Zagtivities

- Can hyperlink to emails too
 - Keep doing what we are doing, but increase interactive capabilities to make the
- Are all events placed on website?
 - No, may be a great way to advertise for events and provide sign-ups
 - Even have weekly updates for scroll through menus
- Knitting Factory transportation for students or where else to go on weekends
 - Maybe freshman only event (but might be “uncool”)
- Note Halloween dance is at 10:00PM in Hemmingson