Title: New Bylaws for the Class Officer

Purpose: This resolution outlines the job description and details of the position of Class Officers. These altered by-laws reflect the evolving needs and changes undertaken by GSBA.

Text:

Section 1: Class Officers will continuously engage in planning events and informational seminars in order to address direct needs of their respective classes.

Section 2: Class Officers will organize, plan, and coordinate four (4) events per semester with the aim of addressing their perspective class's needs.

Section 3: Class Officers are expected to attend weekly meetings with the GAB Coordinator to assist with the planning and organizing of class events.

Section 4: Class Presidents for each class shall lead the Class Cabinet consisting of both Class Officers and Class Senators. In addition, the Class President may invite other Class Representatives (such as Kennel Board class representatives, RHA representatives, on or off campus Senators, etc.). Class Cabinet meetings must be held at least once a month.

Section 5: Class Officers will provide weekly email updates overseen by the Director of Communications about upcoming events on campus and other important information pertaining to their respective classes.

Section 6: Class Officers will represent GSBA and support their peers by attending at least two events per month (i.e. GSBA, University, and/or club event).

Section 7: Class Officers are expected to coordinate with other university groups and departments that specialize in class events (i.e. First Year Experience and Z-Core).

Section 8: Class Officers will assist the Elections Commissioners in the Freshman Class Officer elections by being present at Fall election events, encouraging students to vote, and answering questions about Class Officer positions.

Section 9: Class Officers shall also execute any other duties that the GSBA President or GAB Coordinator deems necessary.
