 1. Moving bike racks from Madonna
- ii. 3-bin system around campus
 1. Mapping where each trashcan is and have already acquired the trash cans to be distributed

VIII. Old Business

IX. New Business

A. Sharp

- i. Spokane government focus on pedestrian safety
- ii. Suggestions to calm Sharp:
 1. Traffic Medallions: paint/draw a large portrait in the middle of the intersection. You focus on it and it makes you more aware of your surroundings
 2. Putting up flashing crosswalk would cost a lot -- would be more of a long term goal
 3. "Bump Out" - remove some of the parking to allow for more visible pedestrians
- iii. After basketball games shows the most pedestrian safety risks

B. Landlord-Tenant Relationship

- i. Presentation will be next month for any tenant that has a problem with their landlord to be able to receive assistance on those issues

C. NY Times

- i. Mostly professors and faculty taking the paper copies
- ii. New Plan:
 1. Still have 100 paper copies
 2. Campus-wide GU ID code good for a year. Don't have to be on Gonzaga Server to access the NY Times
 - a. Have Spanish and Chinese versions
 3. Price will go up from the $17,000 to $22,000 -- library is willing to make up the difference in the two plans or take up the whole cost
