USAS

We hope to bring back students with an understanding of student organizing. We will leave with skills in communication, Campaigning, researching, and coalition building for social justice causes. Students should return with a strong set of skills in navigating campus as students and how to use our Institutional leverage as students in a university to work in solidarity with workers on campus and overseas. Student will gain political skills and education. We will be collaborating and building relationships with other universities across the country as well as sister Jesuit schools such as Georgetown. This funding will go towards registration fees and flight tickets. We have 10 students that would like to go and our goal is to fit them all in.

Housing and meals are all covered. We would need funding for registration and flights. Registration is $50 and a tickets would be $500 per attendee.
